Freehold Building Land, at Staines, Middlesex.

MESSRS. DAVIS and VIGERS are instructed to SELL by AUCTION, at the MART, opposite the Bank of England, on THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, at Twelve for One o'clock, in lots, FOUR ACRES of BUILDING FRONTAGE, upon a capital road, near to the town of STAINES, and within two minutes' walk of the railway station. A healthy gravel soil, and very delightful country, perfectly rural, with good fishing close at hand, and yet within an easy distance from the metropolis. With these attractions and advantages, residences in the neighbourhood are much sought for, and command good rents.—Further particulars, with plans of the estate, may be had fourteen days prior to the sale, of R. R. WHEATLEY, Esq. Staines; of Messrs. ABBOTT and WHEATLEY, Southampton-buildings, Holborn; at the Mart; and Auctioneers' Offices, 3, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry, London.

WEYBRIDGE and WALTON.—Freehold Land and Cottage at the Weybridge entrance to Oatlands Park, half a mile from the station; admirably adapted for building.

MR. GROGAN will SELL by AUCTION, at the SHIP INN, WEYBRIDGE, on THURSDAY, AUGUST 12th, at Twelve o'clock, in small plots, 11½ ACRES of rich LAND, with valuable road frontages (land-tax redeemed), forming a portion of Oatlands Park, most convenient to the station and the church. For its rich prospects, its commanding situation, and its vicinity to the Thames, Hampton Court, Claremont, Virginia Water, &c. it would be difficult to meet with a more admirable site for an hotel, or for villas, which are in great request in this healthy and esteemed neighbourhood, several having already been erected by the Hon. Locke King and others, and which are taken up at high rents as soon as completed. Also, about 3 Acres near the above, admirably adapted for villas. Also, in lots, 17 Acres of beautifully timbered Land (tithe free, and land-tax redeemed), nearly opposite to the temple, in Oatlands Park, having a valuable frontage to the drive and to a new road leading to and within a few minutes' walk of the Walton Station, admirably adapted for a villa or villas.—The land can be viewed on application to JAMES BOLTON, Oatlands Park, and particulars may shortly be had at the cottage; of Messrs. LOWLEY, NICHOLL, and SMYTH, 18, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields; and of the Auctioneer, 44, Park-street, Grosvenor-square.

OATLANDS HOUSE, WEYBRIDGE, nineteen miles from London; a Freehold Residence peculiarly desirable for a nobleman or gentleman; formerly belonging to the Duke of York.

MR. GROGAN will SELL by AUCTION, at GARRAWAY'S, on the 12th of AUGUST (unless previously disposed of), the above celebrated MANSION, finely situate on a terrace of table land, commanding an extensive prospect of surpassing beauty, and within an agreeable distance of Windsor, Hampton Court, Claremont, &c. Greatly reduced of late years, the house is now most convenient for a moderate-sized family, and throughout is in perfect repair; it has recently been tenanted by Lord Foley. The furniture may be taken at a valuation, and immediate possession may be had. There are hot, cold, and shower baths; ample stabling, &c.; orangery, kitchen-garden, lodge-entrance, &c. The great beauty of the pleasure-grounds, the fine cedar trees of two centuries' growth, &c. are generally known. About thirty surrounding acres will be included in the sale, securing the perfect privacy of the house, &c.; and an option will be given of purchasing adjoining land, and also the grotto, upon which 40,000*l.* were laid out by the Duke of Newcastle. From the well-known beauty and salubrity of the spot, and the purity of the water, it would be admirably adapted for a first-class hotel or other establishment, and the contiguity of the Walton and Weybridge Railway Stations, renders communication with London, and the Brighton, the Dover, the Southampton, and the Great Western Railways peculiarly convenient.—The mansion can be viewed only by a special order from the Auctioneer, 44, Park-street, Grosvenor-square, of whom, and of Messrs. LOWLEY, NICHOLL, and SMYTH, 18, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, printed particulars may shortly be had.
